Social and Personal

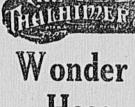

fifth Monday german was danced last night in the Masonic Temple, and was a brilliant social event of the midwinter. All the younger set were present, and the many visitors and married contingent made it quite a large german. The ball-room was decorated in paims and ferns, and the dining room tables were arranged in pink roses and tulips and narcissus, with pink shaded lights. Bryant-Batkins.

Miss Rena Batkins was married last Wednesday evening in the parlor of Union Station Methodist Church to Frank Bryant, Rev. R. P. Potts officiating. The bride wore a going-away gown of blue, with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride's roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Bessie Catlett, of Goochland, wore white chiffor, over white silk, and carried pink rose buds. The groom's best man was Mr. Hicks. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant will make their home in Wash

Says a Norfolk paper: In honor of Miss Mary Fleming, of Fouquier county, who is her guest, Mrs. Hugh W. Davis entertained Friday afternoon at a very pretty card party at her apartment in the Holland. Jonquils and ferns were used as de-There were four tables of bridge, and prizes were awarded to Mrs. R. Cornelius Taylor, Mrs. Garrett Smith, Mrs. Alan Hanckel and Miss Gibson, of North Carolina. Those askmeet Miss Fleming were: Mrs. Mian R. Hanckel, Mrs. Lucien Starke, Mrs. Menalcus Lankford, Mrs. Garrett Emith, Mrs. I. Branch Johnson, Mrs. Henry D. Perkins, Mrs. B. R. Kennon, Mrs. R. C. Taylor, Misses Gibson, Natherine Myers, Emily Johnston,

Dunlop Flour

It's the key to better living The Dunlop Mills Richmond Va

Hose

Four pairs guaranteed to wear four months or new ones furnished free.

THE ARTIST'S DELIGHT.

SOHMER

LEE FERGUSSON PIANO CO.,

Special Suit and Fur Values

Baylor-Yarborough Co.'s, 207 East Broad Street

Sample Shoe Sale NOW ON $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 Shoes $1.98

Porter's Specialty Shoe Store, 217-219 North Fifth Street.

Sutherland & Cherry

Special-Odds and ends in Furniture, Fron Beds, Mattings. Stoves, etc. Cheap 310 EAST BROAD.

A. B. C. Capitol Wrapped Loaf

"The best bread you ever tasted."
Wrapped in waxed paper—not touched by human hands until it is served on your table. Sc. at Your Grocer's.

AMERICA: BREAD AND BAKING CO., 6, 8, 10, 12 E. Leigh Street. SEE THE SHOULDER BRACE

Misses Kitty Rogers, Virginia Barday palms.

Mrs. Sidney Dudley and Miss Virginia Atkinson have returned to the city, after spending the week-end in Hampton.

Miss Nonle Reid, of Roanoke, and Mrs. E. Scott Martin, of Farmville, are in New York attending grand opera.

Miss Agnes Douthat, of Weyanoke, Va., is at Memorial Hospital for a two

Miss Mary E. Pierney, of Philadelphia, is the house guest of Mrs. Frank Stacy, on Hanover Avenue. C. B. Garnett spent Sunday at the Hanfmann y Co.

$25.00 Superb and Stylish Dresses,) for Final Clearance To-Day - -

Dresses that comprise many handsome

Styles in This Collection to Suit

Traveling in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carnest, Mrs. A. F. Craig and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Epps are in Florida. Later they will go to Bahama Islands and Cuba, to

The Misses Stringfellow will enterin this afternoon at a reception in Davie the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Beamon will make their future home in Frank-

Mrs. Alice Brennen has returned to the city, after a recent visit to New-port News and Norfolk.

and Anne Hill, who have been visiting Miss Lucy Gwathmey, of West Grace

C. B. Garnett spent Solding at Baskervine. The building at Baskervine. graduate in June.

Action for $10,000 Brought by W. W. Upchurch Against A, C. L. R. R. Co.

S. A. L. STOCKHOLDERS MEET

Short-Change Artist Sentenced. Other Petersburg News Notes.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., February

The suit of W. W. Upchurch against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Com-pany for $19,000 damages for injuries to person will be tried in the Hustings Court to-morrow. W. R. McKenney will represent the plaintiff, and W. B. Mellwaine and Hamilton & Mann the defendant company. The accident in which the plaintiff claims to have been injured occurred at the Phoenix Street crossing, in the lower part of the city, on the night of December 17, 1969, and it is claimed that no one was on which caused the accident, as required

Sults Settled Out of Court. The suit of James Knapp against David Dunlop, claiming $25,000 damages for assault, which was set for cult Court of Chesterfield county, has been settled by compromise. The amount involved in the settlement is not stated. The plaintiff, now a resident of New York, was, at the time of the alleged assault, employed as chaufteur by Mr. Dunlop. W. R. Me-Kenney was counsel for Knapp, and Lee & Kemp, of Lynchburg, were the attorneys for Mr. Dunlop.

The suit of Thomas M. Davis against the Newport News, Norfolk and Peters-

As one grows old the bowels grow less active. Some then take harsh cathartics, and their bowels harden. Then they multiply the dose. Some take candy Cascarets. They act in natural ways, and one tablet a day is sufficient.

Vest-pocket box, 10 cents-at drug-stores. People now use a million boxes monthly.

On the Shady Side of Forty

Nearly every person needs glasses when they reach forty, and many need them much sooner. Consult us. We employ only expert opticians, and

S. JAMES Jeweler and Optician, Seventh and Main Streets.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 and 9 W. Broad Street.

504 E. Broad St. Monroe 101.

THE ARTISTIC

LEE PERGUSSON PIANO CO. 110 East Brond Street.

FURNITURE COMPANY

was ratified and approved by the stock- | THREE-YEAR-OLD GIRL holders. Judge Leigh R. Watts presided, and those present representing stock in person and by proxy were: D. Hatton, Inness Brown and J. LeRoy. of New York; R. L. Nutt, treasurer; D. C. Porteous, secretary, and W. R.

McKenney, counsel. Short-Changer Sentenced.

H. L. Bush, a white man upwards of sixty years old, said to be from Georgia, was sentenced to four months in jail this morning for practicing the "short-change" game on merchants here. Two charges were preferred against him, and he was given sixty days on each. Bush was caught by Detective Heelan early in his operations, else he might have done extensive swindling.

Incorrigible Boy Thief, James Carpenter, a negro boy of ten years and paralytic, has developed into an incorrigible thief. He has been in court half a dozen times on charges of housebreaking and robbery, but his extreme youth has saved him from severe punishment. This morning he was up again for housebreaking, and was sent to the Hustings Court for disposition. The boy seems to be an disposition. The boy seems to be an Ishmael, with no permanent home and no one to look after or care for him.

A civil service examination was held toms and internal revenue positions There were seven candidates befor the board, and the result of the ex amination will not be known until di-vulged from Washington. There are no present vacancies in either branch of the above service here, but the successful candidates will be eligible for service anywhere.

Whirtwind Campaign to Lift a Debt. t A whirlwind campaign to lift the debt of Washington Street Methodist Episcopal Church will be started to-morrow. Fifty canvassers-twenty-five men and twenty-five women-will con-duct the campaign, which will run through five days. Washington Street Church was recently remodeled and greatly improved, and is now one of the handsomest churches in the State. But its improvement has left it with a debt of $12,000, which it is pro-posed to liquidate by this campaign. and which will doubtless be done. subscriptions will meet each evening in the church to compare notes and make reports.

Personal and Otherwise. Information has been received here of the sudden death in Carlisle, Pa., of Mrs. Colonel M. A. Embrick, aged six-ty-four years. Mrs. Embrick was ty-four years. Mrs. Embrick was well known in Petersburg, which city she and her husband often visited to view the battlefields. Colonel Embrick is a member of the Pennsylvania Bat-tleffeld Commission, under whose supervision the magnificent menument to Hartranft's Division was erotted near

The subscription committees of the Matoaca Business Men's Association report subscriptions to the amount of $4,500 towards the building of Matoaca Bridge across the Appomattox, mostly taken in and around Matoaca. It is planned to build a $10,000 bridge, to be used temporarily as a toll bridge. The people of Petersburg have not yet been approached for subscriptions. A two-story frame dwelling on Federal Street, owned by Mrs. W. H. Ar-well, and occupied by James Wray, was damaged by an interior fire Sun-day morning. Some bedding and furniture were partially burned. Elijah Wilson, colored, was sent to jail for sixty days and fined $5 for disorderly conduct on Sunday and resisting a police officer.

Several Deaths. Mrs. D. J. Winn died last night in her home in Dinwiddle, aged seventy-seven years. She is survived by two sons and one daughter, all of Din-

Robert J. Anthony, a well known young man, aged nineteen years, died vesterday at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. J. Anthony, on Rose Street. William A. Marks, aged twenty-one years, died yesterday at his home in Ettrick. He had been in declining health for a long time.

Mrs. Myrtle Cramer, wife of J. C. Cramer, died this morning after a long illness. She was in her thirty-ninth year, and is survived by her husband and three children. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. M. C. George, three brothers and one sister-Herbert and John M. George, of Richmond, and R. B. George and Mrs. M. T. Aldridge, of Petersburg. A meeting of the Wholesale Merchants' Association will be held in the Chamber of Commerce to-morrow afternoon for reorganization and dis-cussion of matters of interest.

Celebrate Fortleth Anniversory. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Reinach, old and highly esteemed citizens, celebrated on Sunday the fortieth anniversary their marriage, and the birthday of their youngest son. A number of guests were present to enjoy the happy

A number of citizens of Chesterfield are mentioned as probable candidates for the office of treasurer, to succeed Dr. J. P. Gilliam, who after thirty-five years' service, it is said, will not offer for re-election.

Barn and Contents Burned.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
White Plains, Va., February 6.—The barn of Rev. John T. Payne was burned on Sunday morning about 1 o'clock, with all of its contents, including horse, cow, buggy, harness, saddle, bridle, feed and implements. The cause of the fire is unknown, but supposed to be accidental. There was no insurance,

KILLS BABY BROTHER | rights of way.

Caused by Blow on Head. Meetings in Favor of Construc-tion of Railroad.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., February 6 .-Mrs. Carrie Bayne, of Westmoreland county, left her two children-a girl three years old and a boy eighteen months old-in her room at her home for a few moments, and upon her reurn was horrified to find that the counger child, a boy, had been killed by being struck on the head with a piece of wood by the little sister. It is upposed that the child was struck accidentally while the children were playing. The little one did not realize what she had done.

The large addition to the pants factory here has been completed, and new machines are now being installed by an expert machinist. When this work is completed, the number of employes and the output of the factory will be doubled.

Meetings in favor of the construction of the railroad from Hanover.
Courthouse, on the Chesapeake and Obio Railroad, to the Rappahannock River, thence across the Rappahan River, thence across the Rappahannock River down the Northern Neck to deep water on the bay, are being held in the Northern Neck and on the south side of the Rappahannock River. C. M. Ward is addressing each meet-

He is meeting much encouragement. and all of the meetings so far have been successful. It is believed that the efforts will result in the building

Thos. A. Armat, formerly of this city, who was married in Louisville, Ky., December 31, his bride being Miss Brinkley, of Washington, will tour the globe with his wife. The couple sailed rom San Franciscoo February 4. Mr. Armat has relatives here and in Stafford county, and has many friends in oth places.

oth places.

The people of Orange county are considering the question of celebrating Fathers' Day on September 19, 1911.

Thos. Brown, of the Hague, has announced his candidacy for the Demo-peration omination for the House of Delegates from the district composed of Westmoreland and Northumberland of Westmoreland and Northumberland counties in the Northern Neck. Hon.

T. A. Jett is the present candidate.
Geo. L. Browning is mentioned as a probable candidate for the House of Delegates from Orange county, to succeed Delegate C. C. Tallaferro, who is not a candidate for renomination.
Thos. H. Lyon, of Prince William county, the present member of the county, the present member of the House of Delegates, will not be a candidate for renomination. He will run for the position of Common-wealth's Attorney for his county.

Here's a Feast for Shoe Buyers Shoes at Less Than Cost A $5.00 Ladies' Shoe for $1.50

In going over my stock I find nearly a hundred pairs of Ladies' Shoes of various sizes and mostly last year's styles, but all are well made, fine shoes, regularly sold at $4 and $5. They are odds and ends, mostly narrow widths and if you can find your size you will have a rare bargain, for they will go as long as they last at

$1.50 a Pair

SPECIAL

I am overstocked with $4.00 Patrician Storm Winter Calf Ladies' Shoes. They are best quality $4.00 $2.50 Shoes, and are here in all sizes. This week, price

CHILDREN

This lot of Children's Shoes are on sale because the sizes are limited from 5 to 8. The usual price is $1.25 and

EXTRA SPECIAL

$4.00 (Patrician) Cravenette Ladies' Shoes. All sizesbroad toes and heels. This is a lot of Shoes that I do not wish to carry over. They will give most excellent service, and they will doubtless be eagerly bought up. So $2.85 call soon; better come early. This week, price.

TELL THE MEN Men's $5.00 Shoes, all sizes and leathers; stylish, wellmade Shoes. I am anxious to reduce my stock of Men's Shoes, so am offering this lot for..... $3.48

SEYMOUR SYCLE.

11 West Broad Street

MILOOM

Rex Flintkote means quality in roofing

We can give you hundreds of reasons why you should use Rex Flintkote for all kinds of Write us for samples and information.

Smith-Courtney Co., RICHMOND, VA.

Display This Week, at "The Quality Store." POLK MILLER'S The Jexall Store

Street, have returned to Lexington. Boys' $5 to $7.50 Suits, $2.

Heaters at 20% Discount Jones Brothers & Co.,

1418 East Main Street

The Announcment That Brings Glad Tidings to Thrifty Shoppers

effects in French Serge, Poplins, Shepherd Plaid, Taffeta and Broadcloth.

Every Wanted Taste.

Kate Cooke, Kitty Hardy and Diana GRAND JURY FINDS STORY "FALSE AND MALICIOUS"

Newspaper Charges Reflecting on

Commonwealth's Attorney.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Manassas, Va., February 6.—An article published in the Manassas Democrat of January 26, reflecting on H. T. Davies, Commonwealth's attorney whom it declares "characteristics". In Honor of Mrs. Len.

Mrs. H. Gilbert Leigh was hostess of a very charming bridge party on Friday afternoon in Petersburg, in honor of Mrs. Helen Lea, of Richmond, Misses Mary Patteson, Nan Davis, Saidle Foster, Mary Paul Roper, Annie Gill and Margaret Ramsey. The prize was won by Miss Foster.

A very quiet marriage was celebrated Monday, January 30, at 4 o'clock, at the residence of R. G. Hatcher, Cedar Grove. Chesterfield county, when J. J. Beamon was married to Miss May S. Moore, of Cedar Grove. The bride wore chiffon cloth, over 'messaline, trimmed in gold and silver beads. Her only attendant, Miss Margaret Moore, The parlor was decorated with every five parlor wa INJURED AT SAWMILL . Hellywood Association to Meet.

An important meeting of the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at Lee Camp Hall, to make plans for the the annual tea.

In Honor of Richmond Girl.

Says a Norfolk paper: "Miss Mildred Hemingway entertained informally but very delightfully at cards Wednes day evening at her home in Pembroke Avenue, in honor of her guest, Miss Eliza Montgomery, of Richmond."

At the Woman's Club.

The usual afternoon meeting at the Woman's Club was not observed, but instead an excellent musical program was given at 8.20 last evening. The members invited their escorts, and a delightful evening was spent in the club parders. Those taking says in the years of the sawmill, in running back, struck a slab and sent it crashing against his slaw bone in three paaces. Drs. Lewis, Pierce and Oldham rendered wounded man, whose condition is still very critical. Alfred was taken to Baltimore Saturday night for surgical treatment in one of the hospitals of that city. He is about fifty years old and has a wife and seven children.

The Lancaster, Va., February 6,—while John Alfred Was engaged in working at Jesse's sawmill Friday, the carriage of the sawmill, in running back, struck a slab and sent it crashing against his surgical assistance, and spent the wounded man, whose condition is still very critical. Alfred was engaged in working at Jesse's sawmill Friday, the carriage of the sawmill, in running back, struck a slab and sent it crashing against his slaw bone in three paaces, Drs. Lewis, Pierce and Oldham rendered was engaged in working at Jesse's sawmill Friday, the carriage of the sawmill Friday, the carriage of the sawmill, in running back, struck a slab and sent it crashing against his slab and sent it crashing against his slab and sent it crashing against his bead, knocking have a sake and sent it crashing against his slab and sent it crashing against John Alfred Has Juwbone Broken, given at $3.3 last evening. The members invited their escorts, and a delightful evening was spent in the club parlors. Those taking part in the program were Mrs. Henry Baker, sopranor Mrs. Schroeder, contraito; Lynn Tucker, tenor; Murray Hunter, basso, with Henry Baker at the piano and Mrs. Hequembourg and Miss Katherine Thurston, first violins; Mr. Whittet and Mr. Ryall, second violine; Hudson Honry States and F. A. Hoen and Mr. Thurston, cellos.

Dr. A. C. Fisher, of Richmond coun-

Mr. Ryall, second violine; Hudson Honry States and F. A. Hoen and Mr. Thurston, cellos.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Upton. of Blackstone, entertained last Friday evening in honor of Mrs. W. W. Robertson and Mrs. C. C. Davis, of Richmond. Covers were laid for eighteen guests, and the decorations were in violets and narcissus.

Mrs. Hunton Enterfains.

Mrs. Eppa Hunton is entertaining at luncheon to-day at 1:36 o'clock in honor of Mrs. W. H. F. Lee, of 'Ravenswood,' Fairfax county.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Sallie Timberlake, of Halifax county, is visiting relatives in Lynchburg.

Miss Lucile Massey is visiting Miss Ethel Wedge, of Mount Royal Avenue, Baltimore.

Miss Anna Griffith, of Texas, is the guest of Miss Lucy Beveridge, on West Grace Street.

Miss Mary Meck, of this city, is visiting in the South.

Miss Mary Meck, of this city, is visiting in the South.

Miss Mary Meek, of this city, is visiting in the South.

Miss Augustine Allen and Miss Margaret Bilisoly have returned to Virginia Beach, after a visit to friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Swartwout, of this city, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Pope, in Norfolk.

Miss Virginia Stubblefield is at the Gardner Cottage, Virginia Beach, for several weeks.

Mrs. W. E. Greene is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Mrs. Howard Sutton, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. Frederick Sanford, in Newport News.

Mrs. Alice Brennen has returned to the city, after a recent visit to New.

Mrs. Alice Brennen has returned to the city, after a recent visit to New.

The bridal party and several invited Suests went from the church to the Suests went from the church suest.

The bridal party and several invited guests went from the church to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Wilson, where dinner was served. The home decorated in evergreens

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Home of William W. Wootton Burned.
New High School Being Built.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Boydton, Va., February 6.—William
W. Wootton, a prominent farmer, living about seven miles east of this place, had his dwelling entirely destroyed by fire about noon yesterday, together with almost his entire incuschold effects. fects.
Some of the neighbors managed to

of the neighbors managed to save his piano. In addition to the loss of the dwelling and furniture, upon which there was no insurance, Mr. Wootton lost some money which had been left in the house. The dwelling was comparatively a new one, and the entire loss to the owner will be a serious matter. ous matter.

The Beydton District School Board is erecting a handsome new high school building at Baskerville. The building will give you the proper glasses.

$3.49

For Good Coal Heating Stove.

Oscar Sauce

Hermann Schmidt

New shipment.

SOHMER

SPECIAL SALE 1429 E. Main St. 117 W. Broad St.